... the easiest way to travel in britain

Date: September 21, 2006

We heard about search engine optimization while researching on the web. We did our own due research and searched on various search engines where we came across eBrandz. The publicity and listing appearing in the web search, as well as the case studies and information listed on eBrandz website convinced us that it was a good and honest firm.

Hence we had no concerns signing up with eBrandz. It felt great working with eBrandz team. The project manager assigned to me is very good. He kept me abreast of situation as he was doing things.

Very soon I started seeing results (this is because I had not promoted the site much – so the traffic was a direct result of eBrandz efforts). It helped us increase business as previously we did not have any traffic and now we have good amount of traffic.

I would absolutely recommend eBrandz to other companies.
